

APPRAISALS & BONUS PAYOUT GUIDELINES

WT_V.3.26

1.0 Purpose

These guidelines are to standardize the process of Appraisals and Bonus commitments given to employee during the employment tenure.

2.0 Scope

- Salary Appraisals & promotions
- Joining Bonus
- Performance Bonus
- Retention Bonus
- Relocation Bonus

3.0 Salary Appraisals & Promotions

- The annual appraisal cycle of Wissen is April to March.
- New employees should have completed minimum 5 months as of March 31st in the system to be eligible for the first appraisal.
- Joinees from January 1 to October 31 will be eligible for appraisal in April cycle and the new pay structure will be wef April 1.
- Joinees from November 1 to December 31 will not be eligible in upcoming April for appraisal but will be eligible the next appraisal cycle.
- The promotions eligibility will also be considered during annual appraisal cycle.
- At any given time of employment, employees will be eligible for appraisal cycle only if they have completed minimum 5 months of active employment in the appraisal cycle i.e., excluding any type of long absence for whatsoever reason.
- It is expected that employees get their probation confirmed by January 31st to stay eligible for the appraisal process. Any case probation gets extended they will be removed from the eligibility list.
- Resignations received during the appraisal cycle i.e during the evaluation period shall be excluded from the cycle.

4.0 Joining Bonus

- The joining bonus if offered in the employment letter will be disbursed only after getting clearance on BGV and completing the probation period successfully.

- Amber BGV reports will not be eligible for this bonus.
- After receiving the green report and getting confirmed in the systems as a permanent employee the bonus amount will be paid in the upcoming payroll.
- This bonus will be fully recovered from employees getting relieved/terminated due to performance issues.
- Terminations on disciplinary grounds will also call for recovery of this bonus.
- If the employee resigns on or before the date of disbursement of the bonus, then the amount will be forfeited.

5.0 Performance Bonus

- The performance bonus may be offered during offer of employment with Wissen and /or during the subsequent appraisal cycles based on the critical deliverables expected from the employee.
- This bonus will be purely based on the performance of the employee and the organization overall during the given tenure.
- The employees will have mutually agreed the targets and milestones to be achieved as part of Performance bonus payout criteria.
- Employees who are currently on a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) due to performance-related issues will not be eligible for the annual performance appraisal.
- Any bonus amount will be disbursed during the standard payout months - i.e., May, Aug, Nov & Feb. It can be paid in lumpsum payment or in up to 4 instalments within financial year.
- Under achievers with a trail of weak and poor deliverables will be disbursed less than 100% or none of the committed bonus amount.
- The bench days excluding those for BGV will be taken into consideration while calculating eligible bonus amount.
- If the employee resigns on or before the date of disbursement of the bonus amount, the amount will be forfeited.

6.0 Retention Bonus

- The retention bonus if offered to lateral hires at the time of joining will be disbursed only after clean BGV reports and probation confirmation.
- This amount will be forfeited in case the BGV report is amber or red and the probation is not confirmed due to performance or disciplinary issues.
- Retention bonus also may be offered to employees as part of the PMS cycle. The payout will happen only if they confirm the acceptance of retention clauses in writing within the stated timeline as in the retention bonus email communication.

- If the employee resigns before completing the retention period as mentioned in the retention offer, then the amount will be recovered completely during the notice period and/or from the Full & Final settlement.
- The retention bonus offered to the trainee analyst will be paid only after successful completion of the agreed tenure.
- Terminations on disciplinary grounds will call for recovery of this bonus.
- A Trainee analyst serving notice period on the due date of the bonus will not be eligible for the payout.
- This bonus amount will be disbursed during the standard payout months i.e., May, Aug, Nov & Feb as per eligibility.

7.0 Relocation Bonus

- Relocation bonus will be honoured only if offered in the employment letter.
- This bonus is offered for smooth transition of employee along with direct family from his/her current location to the offered work location.
- This is onetime bonus which will be honoured only if the employees shift to work location.
- The reimbursement covers employee and his/her family's travel and transit of household goods.
- Purchases done for shifting and settling at the work location is not covered under this bonus head.
- Those offered relocation bonus will also cover for 5 nights hotel stay with direct family i.e., spouse and kids for the first time they land at the work location with the sub limit of Rs. 20,000/-
- The reimbursement shall be done in line with the standard operating procedures outlined by the company.
- The payroll team shall facilitate the reimbursement in synch with the SOP.
- It shall be fully recovered if the employee leaves the organisation within one year from the date of the bonus disbursement.

Disclaimer: The company reserves the right to modify this policy at any time without intimation subject to statutory guidelines and procedural changes in the company. Breach of the policy intended to defraud may be subject to disciplinary procedures.